

Elizabeth Jochum, PhD
Arts & Health
AAU (US/DK)

Stine Jacobsen, PhD
Music Therapy
AAU (DK)

Shiri Lavy, PhD
Health Psychology
Unvieristy of Haifa (ISR)

Susan Imus, PhD
Arts & Health
Columbia College (US)

Ditte Egholm, MFA
Dance, Physiotherapy
AAU (DK)

Stephan Skov, MA
Music Therapy
AAU (DK)

RESEARCH AND EVALUATION METHODS FOR CREATIVE ARTS THERAPIES (NOV 2023)

This methods course prepares students to conduct empirical studies on the effects and applicability of therapeutic interventions rooted in Creative Arts Therapies (CATs), specifically studies that aim to identify and evaluate well-being and mechanisms of change within the broader field of Arts and Health. The course is limited to 12 students.

Register here.

Topics Covered

- Measuring Well-being and Quality of Life
- Bridging theory & practice
- Cross & interdisciplinary research methods
- Outcome measures
- Change mechanisms
- Participatory Methods
- Ethics

Ideal for PhD students in

- Communication
- Rehabilitation Psychology
- Educational Psychology
- Sports Science
- Dance & Movement Therapy
- Music Therapy
- Arts Therapy

For more information, contact jochum@ikp.aau.dk

AALBORG UNIVERSITY