Summary:

Henrik Lund (born 2 July 1960) is a Danish engineer (M.Sc.Eng.1985) and Professor in Energy Planning at Aalborg University in Denmark. He holds a Ph.D. in Implementation of Sustainable Energy Systems (1990), and a Dr.Techn. in Choice Awareness and Renewable Energy Systems (2009). Henrik Lund is a highly ranked world leading researcher. He is listed among ISI Highly Cited researchers ranking him among the top 1% researchers in the world within engineering. Henrik Lund has many years of management experience as head of department for approx. 200 staff persons (1996–2002), head of section for approx. 50 persons (2014 – 2016) and head of research group of 20-30 persons (2002 – present). During his time the Sustainable Energy Planning research group at Aalborg University has now grown to approx. 30 staff members including 5 professors.

Research competences:

- Energy System Analysis: Methods and models for the design and the evaluation of technical and environmental consequences of energy systems with emphasise on integrated distributed generation technologies such as energy conservation, CHP and renewable energy.
- Feasibility Studies: Methods of socioeconomic feasibility studies with emphasise on employment and balance of payment consequences of the development and implementation of new technologies.
- Public Regulation and Technological Change: Analysis and design of public regulation measures in a market economy with emphasise on the implementation of environmental objectives and technological change in the energy sector.

Groundbreaking research results and activities:

- Starting with his first publication in 1983 Henrik Lund has for many years played an active role in the design and debates of sustainable energy strategies and policies, in Denmark as well as other countries and at the European level. This includes among others Green Energy for Bornholm (1986), Erneuerung der Energiesysteme in den neuen Bundesländern (1993), A Green Energy Plan with Job Opportunities (1996), Sustainable energy alternatives in Thailand (1999), Wind Power in Nicaragua (2006), Energy Strategies of the Danish Association of Engineers (IDA) in 2006, 2009, 2015 and 2020 and the Heat Roadmap Europe studies in 2012 and onwards.

A full list can be seen from here: <http://www.en.plan.aau.dk/henriklund/publications/>

- As a part of his senior doctoral thesis (Dr.Techn.) in 2009 Henrik Lund formulated the Choice Awareness theory which forms a straightforward, comprehensive methodology for comparing different energy systems' ability to integrate variable renewable energy sources together with a theoretical framework approach aimed at understanding how major technological changes, such as renewable energy, can be implemented at both national and international levels. The latter built on the analysis and involvement in 12 cases of decision making in major energy sector investments in Europe, Asia and the US. This theory is novel since it combines a social science theoretical framework understanding with a straightforward cross disciplinary methodology for comparing alternatives within major energy investments. The Choice Awareness theory was afterward published by Academic Press in books in 2010 (1st edt.) and 2014 (2nd edt.) as well as translated into Chinese.
- Henrik Lund is the architect and maker of the Advanced Energy Systems Analysis Tool EnergyPLAN - designed for the analysis and design of sustainable energy solutions at the national level. The model has been made and improved for now around 20 years in an interaction with a wide group of international academics. Today, the model has more than 6000 registered users in more than 100 countries (<http://www.energyplan.eu/members-map-2/>) and has been applied in around 100 peer reviewed journal articles (<http://www.sciencedirect.com/science/article/pii/S0306261915007199>). The EnergyPLAN model is ground-breaking since among others it was the first model in the world to facilitate hourly analyses in a smart energy systems approach including all grids (electricity, heating, cooling and gas) as well as relevant cross sector energy conversion units (power-to-heat and power-to-gas etc.).

- Together with colleagues Henrik Lund has defined and is promoting the concept of Smart Energy Systems. This notion was first mentioned in academic literature in a paper from 2012 by Henrik Lund and colleagues: Link to paper.
