

“The Construction of Competences in Joint Activities”
 Workshop within the DFF-Research Network “Transition and Sustainability of Communicative Competencies in Interactions Involving Young People with Communication Disabilities” (www.transcomm.aau.dk)
 November 4-5 2019, Aalborg University

	Monday Nov. 4.		Tuesday , Nov. 5.
9:00-10:30	Welcome (presentation of network & participants)	9:00-10:30	Data session: Niklas Norén (Uppsala University, S) Children with CP using SGDs in school and at home	Further invited guests <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Maja Sigurd Pilesjö (University of Southern Denmark DK)</li> <li>• Gitte Rasmussen (University of Southern Denmark DK)</li> <li>• Johannes Wagner (University of Southern Denmark DK)</li> <li>• Carolin Demuth (Aalborg University, DK)</li> <li>• Pirkko Raudaskoski (Aalborg University, DK)</li> <li>• Charlotte Klemmensen (Aalborg University, DK)</li> </ul>
	Break		Break
11:00-12:00	Talk: Michael Forrester (University of Kent, UK) Pre-school children’s display of competent membership	10:30-12:00	Data session: Michael Clarke and Orlagh O’Leary (University College London, UK) AAC and autism spectrum disorder
12:00-13:00	Lunch	12:00-13:00	Lunch
13:00-14:30	Data session: Friederike Kern (Bielefeld University, G) Autism in the classroom: participation and categorization practices	13:00-14:00	Talk: Jeff Higginbotham (University at Buffalo, USA) Timing in SGD-mediated turn-taking and meaning making
	Break		Break
15:00-16:30	Data session: Alessandra Fasulo (University of Portsmouth, UK) Home assessment of language competencies	14:30-16:00	Data session: Antonia Krummheuer (Aalborg University, DK) The construction of competence in the co-creation process of a reminder robot
	Break		Break
17:00-18:00	Talk: Catherine E. Brouwer (University of Southern Denmark, DK) How to make gameplay educational	16:30-17:30	Discussion
19:00	Dinner	19:00	Dinner	