NEW MODULE · RESPONSIBLE TOURISM

DESIGN MORE RESPONSIBLE TOURISM FUTURES

A separate master's level module at Aalborg University, Copenhagen. Work on a real project in your own organisation or destination.

ECTS	DURATION	LOCATION	TUITION FEE	DEADLINE
15	FEBRUARY TO JUNE 2027	AAU COPENHAGEN	DKK 22,200	1 DECEMBER 2026

01

WHAT YOU LEARN

To understand the current dynamics in tourism development and articulate its challenges through the lens of responsible tourism. You gain the vocabulary and theory to analyse them, drawing on Nordic cases of community, regeneration and broader value creation.

02

YOUR OUTCOME

Practical tools such as digital mapping and participatory design, and the competencies to activate innovative solutions. You apply them in a real project in your own organisation or destination, combining workshops, teamwork and online sessions.

03

WHO IT IS FOR

- Professionals in DMOs
- Municipalities
- Cultural institutions
- Tourism companies

Requires a relevant higher education and two years of work experience.
