

Responsibility sharing in the context of global displacement:
Taking stock and looking forward
A comparative insight into the responses to Syrian and Ukrainian displacement waves

Department of Politics and Society & Department of Law
Faculty of Social Sciences and Humanities (SSH)
Aalborg University, Copenhagen Campus

A.C. Meyers Vænge 15, 2450 Copenhagen SV
Conference room 1001

Day 1: December 8, 2022

09:30 – 10:00	Welcome note, introduction, and initial reflections by Tamirace Fakhoury and Jesper Lindholm (Aalborg University)
10:00 – 11:00	Keynote speech by Michael Doyle (Columbia University): Principles for Responsibility Sharing/ Proximity, Culpability, Moral Accountability, and Capability ( Online ) Moderator: Tamirace Fakhoury
11:00 – 11:15	Coffee Break
11:15 – 12:30	Panel 1: Taking Stock and setting the stage Nikolas Feith Tan (Danish Human Rights): A duty of states to cooperate in international refugee law and practice? Vladislava Stoyanova (Lund University): Deconstructing Extraterritorial Positive Human Rights Obligations via Solidarity? Molly Fee (Oxford University): “Nobody Wants to Leave”: Refugee Resettlement as Displacement Panel 1: Q&amp;A Chair: Jesper Lindholm
12:30 – 13:30	Lunch Break
13:30 – 14:45	Panel 2: Comparing and Contrasting Eleni Karageorgiou (Lund University): The EU’s response to Ukrainian refugees: A case of solidarity? Peter Seeberg (University of Southern Denmark): Differentiated strategies regarding forced displacement: EU foreign policy practices in the context of the Syrian and Ukrainian refugee crises David de Coninck (KU Leuven): One refugee is not like the other: Public reactions in Europe and the United States towards Ukrainian and Afghan refugees ( Online ) Panel 2: Q&amp;A Chair: Kelly Petillo
14:45 – 15:00	Coffee Break
15:00 – 15:45	Plenary address by Suzan Ilcan (University of Waterloo and Balsillie School of International Affairs): Pluralizing Displacement: Landscapes of Precarious Protection, Responsibility Sharing, and Transitional Experiences ( Online ) Moderator: Steffen Bo Jensen
15:45 – 16:00	Break
16:00 – 17:15	Panel 3: Case studies I Nicolas Micinski (University of Maine): The Unequal Exchange of Refugee Responsibility-Sharing: Dependency and Commodification within the Global Compact on Refugees ( Online ) Jesper Lindholm (Aalborg University): The Danish Special Act on Ukrainian Displaced Persons Kelly Petillo (European Council on Foreign Relations): From limbo to a breaking point: how Europe can help Syrian refugees amidst regional collapse and global shocks Panel 3: Q&amp;A Chair: Michelle Pace

Day 2: December 9, 2022

09:15 – 09:30	Welcome and regroup by the Vice-Dean for Research, Søren Kristiansen (Faculty of Social Sciences and Humanities, Aalborg University)
09:30 – 10:45	Panel 4: Responsibility sharing, the Global Compact and complementary pathways Perveen Ali (UNHCR, Geneva): A Representation of Political Will: The Challenges and Opportunities presented by the Global Compact on Refugees Zvezda Venkova (Lund University): Labour migration based complementary pathways: a tool for fairer sharing of responsibilities in the context of global displacement? Jerome Elie (International Council of Voluntary Agencies): The Global Compact on Refugees as a complex responsibility-sharing mechanism: theory and practice Panel 4: Q&amp;A Chair: Molly Fee
10:45 – 11:00	Coffee Break
11: 00 – 12:00	Plenary address by Henrik M. Nordentoft (UNHCR, Stockholm): Perspectives from UNHCR on the different facets of responsibility sharing in practice
12:00 – 13:00	Lunch Break
13:00 – 14:15	Panel 5: Case studies II Maria Gabrielsen Jumbert (Peace Research Institute Oslo): Different responses to people crossing the EU’s external borders: seen through how humanitarians and volunteers assisting them are controlled and criminalized Michelle Pace (Roskilde University): Who are they? Capturing refugee narratives of “vulnerability” and (un)desiredness through a mixed method design. Marta Pachocka (SGH Warsaw School of Economics and University of Warsaw): Poland and the humanitarian crisis in Ukraine 2022 - key actors, actions and challenges Panel 5: Q&amp;A Chair: Eleni Karageorgiou
14:15 – 14:30	Break
14:30 – 14:50	Possibilities for collaboration and funding: Berit Klitgård Jakobsen (Aalborg University)
14:50 – 15:30	Debriefing session and the way forward: Tamirace Fakhoury and Jesper Lindholm (Aalborg University)

AALBORG
UNIVERSITY

A.C. Meyers Vænge 15, 2450 Copenhagen SV